

THE AVALANCHE HAZARD WILL BE LOW

Avalanche Hazard Forecast for Sunday 03/12/2023

Avalanche Problems

Forecast Snow Stability & Avalanche Hazard

Little change is expected. Unconsolidated snow will remain on all aspects, mainly above 600 metres. Deeper accumulations of older snow will remain, mainly on East through South to West aspects above 900 metres. These will be generally stable. The avalanche hazard will be Low.

Forecast Weather Influences

It is expected to remain cold (around -7C summit temperatures) and dry, with light Southerly backing East-South-Easterly winds.

Comments

View the latest avalanche report

Scan the QR code to view the full Avalanche Hazard Report on the SAIS website.